

What makes a monster?

The Cyclopes are one-eyed huge, savage creatures.

They live on an island where they do nothing but fight.

“If he spots a ship, he dives into the sea... coming up underneath the ship and overturning it. Then he swims off with his pockets full of sailors.”

Fairies appear as delightful and
delicate creatures.
But they possess supernatural powers...

...which make them, at best, unpredictable and at worst, dangerous. Oberon, the nasty King, and the wicked queen Titania order their messenger to play tricks on people.

Shrek is the ugliest guy in town. Everywhere he goes, people and animals flee.
Yet Shrek is proud.

His parents kick him goodbye and send him off in the world. Shrek goes out... to find adventure.

He meets a hideous princess, who's even more unattractive than he is!

They soon fall in love with each other and get married.

The fiercest monsters can be outwitted. The most beautiful can be wicked. And the ugliest can be the hero.
