Very Special Day.

Dolphins have a special way of helping people.

They can make people feel more positive about life. Around the world, there are special organisations that bring people and dolphins together to play.

Our story is about some people with special needs.

This means they often need extra help and care in their daily lives because of different illnesses or conditions.

**Special Needs**: Needing extra help to learn, move, or communicate.

For many, life is a world of routine.

They often live in hospitals or day centres where they follow set programmes every day. Their lives are very regular and organized.

Everything happens at a fixed time.

They get up at a fixed time.

They eat at a fixed time.

They do physical exercise at regular times.

They go to bed at the same time.

Routine : Doing the same things in the same order, every day.

But today is different.
Today is a surprise.

A Christmas
Present for You!

A special Christmas present.

A charity association has organised this day just for them. It is a gift to bring them happiness.

Charity: An organisation that helps people who are in need.

Today, they are in Florida!

And they are here to play with dolphins.

A group of five children are swimming in clear, turquoise ocean water. They are all smiling and laughing, looking towards a dolphin that is swimming towards them. The dolphin's head is above the water, and it appears to be interacting with the children. The scene is bright and sunny, with water splashing around the children and the dolphin. The overall mood is joyful and carefree.

A day for fun and swimming.

The children are having fun swimming with the dolphins.

An unforgettable ride!

They are holding onto the dolphins, and the dolphins are pulling the children along.

They are all enjoying every moment.

“These are people who don’t always smile...
...but who are smiling today.””

Sometimes, one special day makes all the difference.

What makes a day special for you?
